Assignment I

Assignment I is posted here:

<http://www.cdf.toronto.edu/~csc108h/winter/assignments.shtml>

Due: Tuesday 28 January 10:00pm

Remember to:

- * Go over the Assignment Submission section of the Assignments page.
- * Declare your partnership on MarkUS (even if you are working alone)
<https://markus.cdf.toronto.edu/csc108-2014-01/?locale=en>
- * Submit early and often. You can submit multiple times till the deadline, so don't wait until last minute!

The sooner you start, the more opportunities you have to get help at instructor office hours and the CSC Help Centre.

Ways to Get Help

You can find a summary of all the ways to get help here:

<http://www.cdf.toronto.edu/~csc108h/winter/gethelp.shtml>

There's a calendar too!

Reminder: Instructor Office Hours

Myrto Papadopoulou: Tuesdays 3-5 in BA 4237

Jen Campbell: Mondays 11:30 - 1, Wednesdays 1-2:30 in BA 4238

Lab Rooms Updated

Because of enrolment changes, the lab room assignment has been updated. Please check whether you are in the same room:

<http://www.cdf.toronto.edu/~csc108h/winter/exercises.shtml>

Note: the Thursday 7-9 lab will be held in BA3185.

Lab Exercises (week 4 and on)

Starting from week 4:

You should do all lab exercises on your own (without a partner).

Attending lab hours is optional.

You can use any of these hours to get help.

All information for Lab Exercises is here:

<http://www.cdf.toronto.edu/~csc108h/winter/exercises.shtml>

Marks Posted

The Marks page of the course website lists the grades currently available and contains a link to the grades website:
